Society Benefit At the Belasco Week of April 20

With but two weeks to intervene before the initial presentation of the Prince of Parcheesi" by the Washingon Dramatic Society, the members of he company are engaged in a continual round of rehearsals, at which the prin-cipals and the chorus are rapidly ac-quiring a degree of perfection that guarantees the success of the produc-tion. The operetta will be given at the Belasco Treater during the week com encing April 20, and the proceeds will be devoted to the maintenance of the Junfor Republic, at Annapolis Junction,

The members of the smart set who will appear in this musical play are devoting themselves to the daily grind of rehearsal work with all the enthusi ism they would ordinarily show in at-ending teas, receptions, dinners, dances tending teas, receptions, uniners, danced and similar functions. Rauscher's ball-room is filled nearly every afternoon and evening with members of the cast, perfecting the intricate steps of dances and practicing songs which are expectrival the success of the famou Florodora" sextet. After all, the prin ripals and the various choruses have been separately drilled, the entire company is gathered together for an even ing rehearsal of the entire three acts.

Lenten Penance.

The young society folks are finding in the preparatory work of this charity play an opportunity for real Lenten enance. But there is a lot of fun in it also, and when Stage Director Percy Leach gives a word or two of commenation every one feels well paid for all the hard work. Mr. Leach has accom plished wonders in brightening up the lines of the play, and in imparting the necessary "stage business" to the ama-teurs. He feels that the performances will be creditable in every respect.

Miss Ruth Halford, who is looking after the innumerable business details connected with the production of the operetia, as the representative of the Junior Republic, is now giving her un divided time to the enterprise.

After one or two readjustments of the cast the principal parts are now in the ing the week of April 20, as follows Mrs. P. Lee Philips, Miss Olga Con-verse, Miss Edith Spofford, Miss Almyra Sessions, and Miss Alice Goodwin, Andrew Y. Bradley, Dr. Alfred F. Hopkins P. L. Scantling, Charles G. Harris, Le of the blood of the longing lover. The shell is exposed to the sun for three nights. It is then piaced on hot ashes until calcined, when the whole is reduced to fine powder and administered secretly in a cup of coffee or a glass of wine to the object of affection.

Another charm is for the witch to undress at midnight and tie her clothes up in a bundle, which she places on her head. Then, kneeling in the center of her room, she pronounces an incantation, at the end of which she shakes her head. If the bundle falls in front of her, it is a good sign; should it fall behind her, the charm will not avail.

Yet another is worked in the following manner: Pieces of green, red, and white ribbon are purchased in three different shops, the name of the persons to be charmed being repeated mentally each time. The snopkeeper must be paid with the left hard, the ribbon being received in the right. When all the pieces are bought they are taken to a witch, who sets out to find the person to be charmed. On finding him or her the witch mutters to herself: "With these ribbons I bind you to such a one."

Then she returns the ribbons to the purchaser, who ties them heneath his or her left knee and wears them at church.—Exchange.

A SLIGHT MISTAKE.

They had been engaged just seventeer minutes by the clock, when a scornful look appeared on her face that was calculated to wither the orange blosoms.
"I can't imagine, dear," he said, adly, "what has come over you so uddenly. I simply asked if you were omantic, when—"

"Oh, George, forgive me!" she ex-claimed, with a convulsive sob, as she threw her arms about his neck. "I thought you asked me if I was rheu-matic."—Philadelphia, Ledger.

Must You Reduce Your Fat?

If you have gotten to the point, my lear madame or good sir, where the excess fat must positively come offdon't worry. No need to peer in the gymnasium door with a despairing glance or sniff dubiously at the soapy savoriness of a bowl of impoverished gruel. You can keep on eating what you please if you will but ask your druggist for ½ ounce Marmola, ½ e Fluid Extract Cascara Aromatic, and 3½ ounces Syrup Simplex. Get the Marmola sealed. Mix it at home and take a teaspoonful after meals and at bedtime, for a few weeks. Good health and firm, smooth flesh reduced quickity to an amount natural to your build will reward you. Too simple, you say. Fortunately simple, I say. The simplest things are the best.

A BEAUTIFUL SOCIETY WOMAN.

One of the best-known women in the exclusive inner circles of the New York smart set, whose beautiful complexion is the admiration of all who know her, ascribes tness facial charms to regular massage with Nadinola Facial Cream for a few minutes each day. In a recent conversation with friends this lady is reported to have stated that Nadinola Cream is the most delightful and effective preparation of its nature that ever graced the dressing table of any woman of refinement who appreciates the desirability of having at hand a cream which is certain in its beautiful gresslits and which maw be applied easily and effectively by the user herself. Nadinola is a beautiful white cream, delicately perfumed with ottar
